Barcelona is a city that has it all: culture, history, architecture, food, and nightlife. With so much to see and do, it can be hard to know where to start. That's why we've put together this ultimate travel guide to help you make the most of your 72 hours in Barcelona.

Day 1

On your first day in Barcelona, start by exploring the city's famous Gothic Quarter. This labyrinthine neighborhood is home to some of the city's most iconic landmarks, including the Barcelona Cathedral, the Palau de la Generalitat, and the Santa Maria del Mar church.

After lunch, head to the Las Ramblas, a lively pedestrian street that runs through the heart of Barcelona. Here you can shop, eat, and people-watch to your heart's content.

In the evening, take a walk to the Barceloneta beach and enjoy a romantic sunset dinner at one of the many restaurants lining the promenade.

Day 2

On your second day in Barcelona, visit the Sagrada Familia, a towering basilica designed by Antoni Gaudí. This unfinished masterpiece is one of the most iconic buildings in the world and is a must-see for any visitor to Barcelona.

After lunch, head to the Park Güell, another of Gaudí's creations. This whimsical park is home to colorful mosaics, fantastical sculptures, and gingerbread-like houses.

In the evening, enjoy a traditional Catalan dinner at one of the many restaurants in the Born district.

Day 3

On your last day in Barcelona, visit the Picasso Museum, which houses a large collection of the artist's work. After lunch, head to the Camp Nou, the home of FC Barcelona, one of the most successful football clubs in the world.

In the evening, take a walk through the Gràcia district, a charming neighborhood known for its independent shops, bars, and restaurants.

Where to Stay

Barcelona has a wide range of accommodation options to suit all budgets. Here are a few of our top picks:

- Hotel Arts Barcelona: A luxury hotel located on the beach with stunning views of the city.
- Hotel El Palace Barcelona: A historic hotel located in the heart of the city with elegant rooms and a rooftop pool.
- Hotel Soho Barcelona: A modern hotel located in the Eixample district with stylish rooms and a rooftop bar.
- Hotel Andante Barcelona: A budget-friendly hotel located in the Gothic Quarter with clean and comfortable rooms.

Where to Eat

Barcelona is a foodie's paradise, with a wide range of restaurants to choose from. Here are a few of our top picks:

- El Celler de Can Roca: A three-Michelin-starred restaurant serving innovative Catalan cuisine.
- Disfrutar: A two-Michelin-starred restaurant serving modern European cuisine.
- Cañete: A traditional Catalan restaurant serving classic dishes.
- La Paradeta: A seafood restaurant serving fresh seafood dishes.

Things to Do

In addition to the many attractions mentioned above, here are a few other things to do in Barcelona:

- Visit the Barcelona Zoo: Home to over 2,000 animals from around the world.

- Take a boat trip to the Tibidabo amusement park: Enjoy panoramic views of the city from the top of Mount Tibidabo.
- Visit the CosmoCaixa science museum: Learn about science and technology in a fun and interactive way.
- Take a cooking class: Learn how to cook traditional Catalan dishes.

Getting Around

Barcelona is a very walkable city, and most of the major attractions can be reached on foot. However, if you need to travel further afield, there is a good public transportation system that includes buses, metros, and trams.

Tips for Visiting Barcelona

- Book your accommodation in advance, especially if you are traveling during peak season.
- Purchase a Barcelona Card, which gives you unlimited access to public transportation and discounts on many attractions.
- Learn a few basic Spanish phrases, as not everyone in Barcelona speaks English.
- Be aware of pickpockets, especially in crowded areas.
- Have fun
