

The Archer House: A Historic Gem in Asheville, North Carolina

Nestled in the heart of Asheville, North Carolina, The Archer House is a historic gem that transports guests back in time to an era of elegance and charm. With its charming architecture, lush gardens, and captivating history, this boutique inn offers a truly unique and unforgettable experience.

A Rich History

The Archer House was built in 1899 by Robert S. Archer, a prominent Asheville businessman. The house was designed in the Victorian style, which was popular at the time, and it features many of the architectural details that are characteristic of this style, such as a wraparound porch, bay windows, and a turret. The house was originally used as a private residence, but it was converted into a bed and breakfast in the 1980s.

The Archer House has a long and storied history. It has been visited by many famous people over the years, including President William Howard Taft, Thomas Edison, and Henry Ford. The house has also been featured in several movies and television shows, including "The Last of the Mohicans" and "The Secret Life of Bees."

Charming Accommodations

The Archer House offers a variety of charming accommodations, including guest rooms and suites. The guest rooms are located in the main house and feature a mix of Victorian and modern furnishings. The suites are located in the carriage house and offer more space and amenities, such as fireplaces and whirlpool tubs.

All of the rooms at The Archer House are decorated with a unique blend of antiques and modern art. The rooms are spacious and well-appointed, and they offer a comfortable and inviting place to relax and unwind.

Lush Gardens

The Archer House is surrounded by lush gardens that are a perfect place to relax and enjoy the beauty of nature. The gardens feature a variety of flowers, trees, and shrubs, and they are a popular spot for weddings and other special events.

The gardens are also home to a variety of birds and wildlife, and it is not uncommon to see deer, rabbits, and squirrels wandering through the grounds.

Unforgettable Dining

The Archer House is home to a fine dining restaurant that serves a variety of classic and contemporary dishes. The restaurant is located in the main house and features a warm and inviting atmosphere. The menu changes seasonally, but it always includes a variety of fresh, locally sourced ingredients.

The Archer House also offers a variety of other dining options, including a casual café and a rooftop bar. The café is a great place to enjoy a light lunch or snack, and the rooftop bar offers stunning views of the Asheville skyline.

A Perfect Getaway

The Archer House is the perfect place to stay for a romantic getaway, a weekend escape, or a special occasion. The inn offers a variety of amenities and activities to make your stay as enjoyable as possible, and the staff is always happy to help you plan your trip.

If you are looking for a truly unique and unforgettable experience, The Archer House is the perfect place for you. Book your stay today and step back in time to an era of elegance and charm.
