

The Territories of the Russian Federation: 2024 Territories of the World

The Russian Federation is the largest country in the world by land area, spanning over 17 million square kilometers (6.6 million square miles). It is a vast and diverse country, with a rich history and culture. The Russian Federation consists of 85 federal subjects, which are the highest level of division in the country. These subjects can be republics, autonomous regions, oblasts, autonomous okrugs, and federal cities.

The Territories of the Russian Federation 2024 (Territories of the World) by David Lucander

★★★★☆ 4.5 out of 5

Language : English
File size : 5757 KB
Text-to-Speech : Enabled
Screen Reader : Supported
Enhanced typesetting: Enabled
Word Wise : Enabled
Print length : 339 pages

Republics

There are 22 republics in the Russian Federation. Republics are the highest level of division within the Russian Federation, and they have their own constitutions and governments. Republics are typically home to minority ethnic groups, and they have a high degree of autonomy.

Some of the largest and most well-known republics in the Russian Federation include the Republic of Tatarstan, the Republic of Bashkortostan, and the Republic of Sakha (Yakutia).

Autonomous Regions

There are 9 autonomous regions in the Russian Federation. Autonomous regions are similar to republics, but they have a lower level of autonomy. Autonomous regions are typically home to minority ethnic groups, and they have their own languages and cultures.

Some of the largest and most well-known autonomous regions in the Russian Federation include the Nenets Autonomous Region, the Yamalo-Nenets Autonomous Region, and the Khanty-Mansi Autonomous Region.

Oblasts

There are 46 oblasts in the Russian Federation. Oblasts are the most common type of federal subject in Russia. Oblasts are typically home to a variety of ethnic groups, and they have a relatively high level of autonomy.

Some of the largest and most well-known oblasts in the Russian Federation include the Moscow Oblast, the Leningrad Oblast, and the Sverdlovsk Oblast.

Autonomous Okrugs

There are 4 autonomous okrugs in the Russian Federation. Autonomous okrugs are similar to oblasts, but they have a lower level of autonomy. Autonomous okrugs are typically home to minority ethnic groups, and they have their own languages and cultures.

Some of the largest and most well-known autonomous okrugs in the Russian Federation include the Chukotka Autonomous Okrug, the Yamalo-Nenets Autonomous Okrug, and the Khanty-Mansi Autonomous Okrug.

Federal Cities

There are 3 federal cities in the Russian Federation. Federal cities are the most urbanized type of federal subject in Russia. Federal cities are typically home to a large population of people, and they have a high level of autonomy.

The 3 federal cities in the Russian Federation are Moscow, Saint Petersburg, and Sevastopol.

The Russian Federation is a vast and diverse country, with a rich history and culture. The 85 federal subjects of the Russian Federation represent the many different peoples and cultures that make up this great nation.

The Russian Federation is a member of the United Nations, the Council of Europe, the G8, and the Shanghai Cooperation Organization. It is also a permanent member of the United Nations Security Council.

The Territories of the Russian Federation 2024 (Territories of the World) by David Lucander

★★★★☆ 4.5 out of 5

Language : English
File size : 5757 KB
Text-to-Speech : Enabled
Screen Reader : Supported
Enhanced typesetting : Enabled
Word Wise : Enabled
Print length : 339 pages

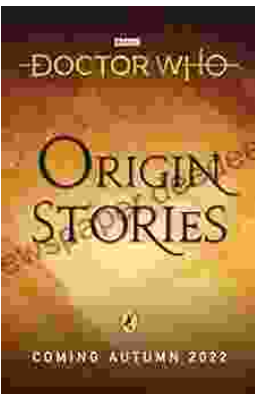

FREE

DOWNLOAD E-BOOK

50 Amazing Color Paintings Of Pierre Paul Prud'Hon French Romantic Painter

Pierre Paul Prud'Hon (1758-1823) was a French Romantic painter known for his graceful and ethereal compositions. His work is characterized by soft colors, delicate brushwork,...

Doctor Who Origin Stories: A Comprehensive Exploration of the Time Lord's Beginnings

The Mysterious Doctor The Doctor, the enigmatic protagonist of the long-running British science fiction television series Doctor Who,...